NORDIC PROFESSIONAL CONFERENCE 2010

WELCOME

TO NORDIC PROFESSIONAL CONFERENCE FOR MEDICAL SECRETARIES IN COPENHAGEN MAY 2010

- and to three terrific, inspiring and eventful days, where you can meet colleagues from all over Scandinavia, while getting a rush of big-city atmosphere in the Danish capital.

You can look forward to exciting contributions from people with opinions and something to say. A string of interesting presenters will provide food for thought and enrich you with the latest.

The academic themes will circle around everything from the health situation in the Nordic countries to future healthcare - naturally with a focus throughout on your role as a medical secretary.

In addition, we will set spotlight on your personal lifestyle, when Denmark's most famous and dynamic pioneer into healthy living, exercise and nutrition serves one of his usual humor-filled speeches bursting with energy.

In other words, the program for the three days conference in Denmark is studded with gems and designed to send you home with a smile, renewed job satisfaction and hopefully with a lot of good ideas for how it can be even more fun to go to work.

So take your colleagues by your hands - and come to Copenhagen.
Together we are the best!
